Donna Hall joined Goodman Allen Donnelly in 2019 in the firm's Norfolk office, bringing extensive experience in tort defense, business and consumer litigation, transportation litigation and bankruptcy and creditors' rights.

With extensive knowledge of the Uniform Commercial Code and secured transactions, she has handled litigation cases involving warranty claims including manufacturer and product warranties. Donna has represented creditors, lenders and foreclosure trustees in litigation cases and secured and unsecured creditors and trustees in Chapter 7, 11 and 13 bankruptcy cases and loan restructurings, and represents insureds in personal injury and premises liability cases, business negligence cases and automobile accident cases.

Donna has had the honor to be listed among the Best Lawyers in America®, Commercial Litigation and Bankruptcy and Creditor-Debtor Rights/Insolvency and Reorganization Law from 2017 to 2019 and was listed among the "Legal Elite" by Virginia Business magazine for Bankruptcy/Creditors' Rights in 2014 and 2016.
