Elizabeth Dahl Coleman assists healthcare providers with a wide variety of healthcare related issues, including shepherding clients through Virginia's Certificate of Public Need (COPN) program, assisting clients with licensing and credentialing issues, representing individual providers before Virginia's 13 health regulatory boards, navigating business transactions, and ensuring compliance with oft-changing and regulatory provision. She also routinely assists healthcare providers with employment issues, such as contract disputes and grievance processes. She strives to quickly and smoothly resolve all issues to enable clients to focus on their day-to-day responsibilities and seeks out opportunities to put proactive measures in place to protect the client from any future actions.
